Dear Parent/ Guardian,

This year, we are celebrating World Book Day on Thursday 3rd March, and we would like to invite you to join us in helping your child to make the most of this special occasion. World Book Day celebrates the joy and value of books and reading, especially for children.

To help get them started on their reading journey, every child will receive a £1 token in which they can choose from a list of £1 books, for free!

On Thursday 3rd March, we would like to invite children to come to school dressed as their favourite book character. The costume can be as simple or as elaborate as you like! You can find some costume ideas here: <https://www.worldbookday.com/resource/dressing-up/>.

We would also like to invite children to bring to school their favourite book to share with their class. You can join us in building your child's enthusiasm for books well beyond World Book Day by reading together regularly. For more information about World Book Day and ideas on sharing books at home, visit worldbookday.com.

Children are never too young to start their journey with books, and the benefits of reading are enormous—so we hope, like us, you will use World Book Day to celebrate it with your child.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely
